

Will Allen

Will Allen is a prominent voice in environmentalism. He is the founder of Growing Power Inc and is a strong advocate for community farms and fresh, affordable, and nutritious food for all - regardless of class or economic status.

A community farm is a shared garden where community members grow and share fruits, vegetables, and herbs!

Color the garden below and then start your own! It could be as small as a pot in the window!

