

How to Create a Business Name

Think about what the company will represent. The name must be easily memorable and should represent your business.

Step 1: Write down words that make you think of the company .

Step 2: Think of a way to put some of those words together. The name should be short and easy to remember.

Step 3: Put a list together of the best names! Get some feedback from team members or event potential customers.

