

The Violin

The violin is a string instrument with a hollow wooden body. It makes sound when you pull the bow across the four strings. Violins are common members of orchestras, and other musical ensembles. Color in the violin and learn about the different parts of this important musical instrument!

